

A RETURNING FAVOURITE - NETSUPPORT RADIO AT BETT 2020!

NETSUPPORT RADIO

Listen back to Bett's best bits with NetSupport Radio, the official broadcaster of Bett 2020.

Following the success of Bett 2020, NetSupport Radio (powered by Anderton Tiger) has made the exclusive interviews, recorded at the show, available as a series of insightful podcasts. Broadcasted daily throughout the show, NetSupport Radio engaged visitors and industry experts in debate and reflection on the show's six new themes with host, Russell Prue.

CLICK HERE to listen via the app.

Published by Bett (Hyve)

This year, Bett hosted its most senior and global visitor audience, with over 40,000 attendees and 88 leading EdTech companies.

Listen back to Bett's best bits with NetSupport Radio, the official broadcaster of Bett 2020. Following the success of Bett 2020, NetSupport Radio (powered by Anderton Tiger) has made the exclusive interviews, recorded at the show, available as a series of insightful podcasts.

Broadcasted daily throughout the show, NetSupport Radio engaged visitors and industry experts in debate and reflection on the show's six new themes with host, Russell Prue. With these interviews now available as podcasts, listeners can listen back to chat, analysis and debate on the biggest issues in education throughout the event.

CLICK HERE TO LISTEN BACK!

SOME OF THE RECENT GUESTS AND TOPICS INCLUDE:

- Professor Sugata Mitra | Self-organised learning environments and the Granny Cloud.
- Professor Stephen Heppell | Research behind the learnometer.
- Genna Ash, Education Technology Magazine | Hot topics in edtech.
- Henri Verdier, French Ambassador for Digital Affairs | Digital collaboration and innovation.
- Dr Edward Tse, Edtech Leader | The impact of technology on future employment.
- Will Few, Internet Watch Foundation | Removing inappropriate images online.

